

The Last Promises

Promise Seven:
The Promise of Trust

Dr. Jeff King
Christ Lutheran Church
Southwick, Massachusetts

The Last Promises

Promise Seven: The Promise of Trust

By this time it was noon. Darkness fell across the whole land until three o'clock, for the sun stopped shining Then Jesus shouted, "Father, into Your hands I entrust My spirit!" And with these words, He breathed His last breath. (Luke 23:44-46)

In Your Darkest Hour...

Just _____ God _____.

The bedtime prayer of every Jewish child: "Into Your hands I entrust my spirit." (Psalm 31:5)

Based on this verse, today we teach our children this bedtime prayer: "Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep. And if I die before I wake, I pray the Lord my soul to take."

He focused on the _____, not the _____.

What to Remember in Your Darkest Hour

1. I have a Father _____.

"Father, into Your hands I entrust My spirit."

"As a father has compassion on his children, so the Lord has compassion on those who honor Him." (Psalm 103:13)

Worth Remembering: God loves me _____.

2. My Father _____.

"Father, into Your hands I entrust My spirit."

That word actually means "to deposit." It's the word they would use for a safety deposit box.

Worth Remembering: Whatever I give to God, I can trust Him to take care of.

3. My Father _____.

“Father, into Your hands I entrust My spirit.”

Worth Remembering: Placing your life in God’s hands is as easy as a child jumping into the pool!