It Would Be My Honor

Jesus Returns Home for a Visit

Jesus left that part of the country and returned with His disciples to Nazareth, His hometown.

The next Sabbath He began teaching in the synagogue, and many who heard Him were amazed. They asked, "Where did He get all this wisdom and the power to perform such miracles?"

Then they scoffed, "He's just a carpenter, the son of Mary and the brother of James, Joseph, Judas, and Simon. And His sisters live right here among us."

They were deeply offended and refused to believe in Him. Then Jesus told them, "A prophet is honored everywhere except in His own hometown and among His relatives and His own family."

Mark 6:1-4

“Honor one another above yourselves.” (Romans 12:10)

- Atimos: to dishonor, to treat as common or ordinary.
- Time: to value, respect, or treasure.

- Honor _____. Dishonor _____.

When you give someone honor, nine times out of ten they will live up to it and act in a way that is honorable.

- Respect is _____. Honor is _____.

There is a big difference between respect and honor. Respect must be earned, honor can be freely given.

- Any time you dishonor, it actually hurts _____.

Jesus said to them, “A prophet is honored everywhere except in his own hometown among his relatives and his own family.” Jesus could not do any miracles there except lay His hand on a few sick people and heal them. (Mark 6:4-5)

- When you honor people, you honor _____.

“Outdo one another in showing honor.” (Romans 12:10)
