Ain't No Grave

Easter Sunday 2023

1. What's going to happen?

"He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away." (Revelation 21:4)

The Bible says: Death can't hold you. Death has been defeated. Death has been swallowed up in victory.

2. Where am I going?

You're being invited to a place called heaven.

Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. I will get you in." (John 14:6)

Jesus said: "In My Father's house are many mansions. If it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. One day I will come back and take you to be with Me ..." (John 14:2-3)

Sara Tucholsky Makes it Home!

After being injured in a softball game, Mallory Holtman carried Sara around the bases. By the time they headed home, the spectators had risen to their feet cheering, Sara's teammates had gathered at Homeplate, and Sara was smiling like a homecoming queen!

And she should smile! The only one who could help her did help. And because she did, Sara made it home.

Jesus offers the same for you and for me. Mallory's message to Sara is Jesus' message to us: "I'm going to pick you up and carry you home."

Won't you let Him? You can't make it on your own. But Jesus has the strength you don't have. Let Him do what He came to do. Let Him carry you home.
